

Punto y Raya

(Dot & Line)
Animation Festival

8PM Tuesday
October 12, 2010
McConomy Auditorium

This festival, which has been called “most abstract in the world”, explores the creative possibilities of dots and lines in the various spheres of science, art and thought. The Punto y Raya festival features no figuration – just dots and lines as ends in themselves!

Hosted by Noël Palazzo (festival curator) and Larry Cuba (featured animator)

This event is free and open to the public.
Sponsored by the STUDIO for Creative
Inquiry at Carnegie Mellon University.
